

BTA Mid-America presents:

Gateway to Success

“How do I greet every person I meet?
In silence I say, ‘I love you.’ Though spoken in silence these words unwrinkle my brow, shine through my eyes, bring a smile to my face and echo in my voice.”
Og Mandino

RISING ABOVE

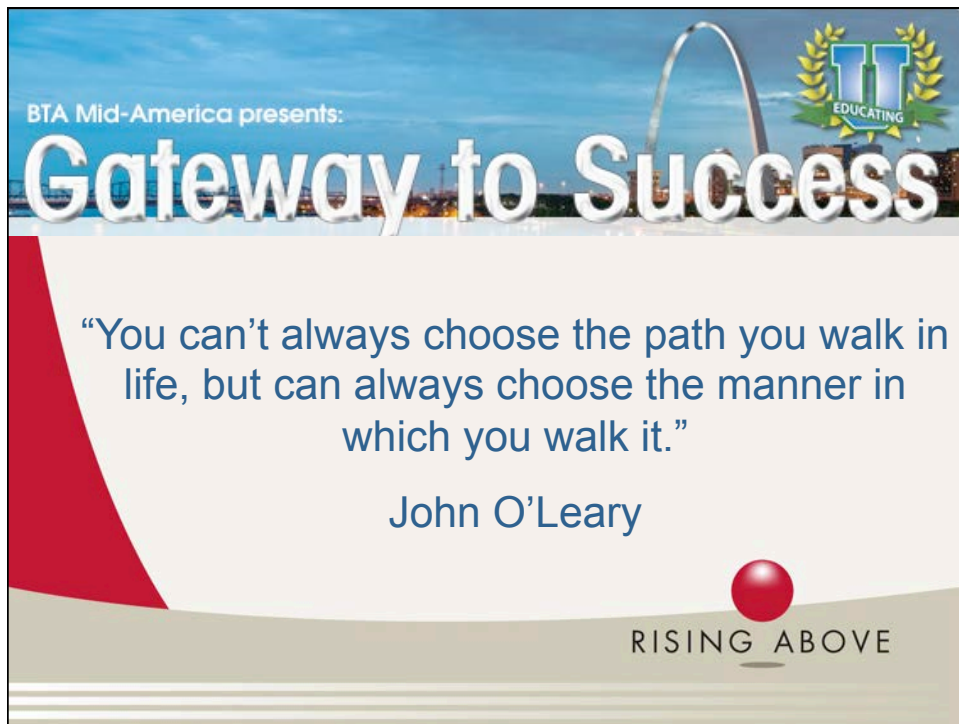

BTA Mid-America presents:

Gateway to Success

“He who knows his WHY can endure any HOW”
Nietzsche

RISING ABOVE

BTA Mid-America presents:

Gateway to Success

“You can’t always choose the path you walk in life, but can always choose the manner in which you walk it.”

John O’Leary

RISING ABOVE

This slide features a background image of the Gateway Arch in St. Louis. In the top right corner, there is a logo with the letters 'IT' inside a laurel wreath, with the word 'EDUCATING' written below it. The slide has a red curved shape on the left side and a red sphere on a pedestal in the bottom right corner.

BTA Mid-America presents:

Gateway to Success

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

RISING ABOVE

This slide is identical to the one above but includes three numbered lines for taking notes. The background, logo, and decorative elements remain the same.

BTA Mid-America presents:

Gateway to Success

Stay connected!

John O'Leary
www.RisingAbove.com
www.Facebook.com/SpeakerJohnOleary
John@RisingAbove.com
314.822.3282

RISING ABOVE

The poster features a background image of the Gateway Arch in St. Louis. A red curved shape is on the left, and a red sphere is on the right. The text is centered in the middle section.